

About the Positions

PACT Institute is seeking passionate Speech-Language Pathologists to join our collaborative pediatric therapy team in Hopkins, MN. Current open positions include:

- Experienced SLP: Full-time position for licensed speech-language pathologists
- Clinical Fellowship (CF): Unique opportunity for new graduates with flexible career options

Why Our Clinical Fellowship Is Unique

Our CF program provides exceptional support for new professionals:

- Increased level of supervision and support within group and individual sessions
- Work directly with CF supervisor and experienced speech pathologists
- Benefit from co-treatment opportunities with occupational therapists
- Experience enhanced supervision in a collaborative clinic environment
- Option to continue with PACT or pursue other opportunities

This is ideal for candidates who:

- Desire extensive learning and mentorship during their CF year
- Are exploring different practice settings before committing long-term
- May have future relocation plans but seeking a quality CF experience now

About PACT Institute

What is distinctly different about PACT Institute's programming is how it threads an individualized developmental social curriculum throughout a variety of specialized services for each child. Our mission is to enhance the acquisition and functional use of developmental skills related to speech-language, social pragmatics, sensory processing, motor development, cognition, and social interactions.

We are seeking a positive and creative speech-language pathologist who is looking for a unique opportunity to provide therapeutic interventions within an activity-based social curriculum. PACT's therapeutic model integrates a multidisciplinary approach among speech and occupational therapists, offering valuable and rewarding opportunities for collaboration and enhanced service provision. For our therapy staff, PACT provides a balanced schedule allowing time for administrative duties, continuing education opportunities, teaming, consultations with families and outside professionals, as well as general flex time.

We are offering a flexible start date in the spring or early summer of 2025. We are looking for a full-time speech pathologist and/or a CF candidate who is interested in PACT's service model and joining our team.
